Prayer

– Kimberly King, RSCJ

God of yesterday, today, and tomorrow, please grant each of us
the measure of courage and confidence we need to fully live our call to transformation with a heart open to the future;
Open to the unknown of what lies ahead and all that will be called forth:
the letting go, the creativity, the birth, the setting free
so that your Sacred Heart might be made known ever more fully.

As we move forward with curiosity and questions,
May your unwavering fidelity encourage us.
As we move forward toward greater communion and openness,
May the Spirit fill and guide us.
As we move forward into mystery and grace,
May your love surround, sustain, and inspire us.

We count on you,
We trust in you, and We gather together with the whole Society within the embrace of your Mercy.

Amen
