Easter celebrations will likely look a lot different as more than 1.5 billion people worldwide have been asked to stay home amid the spread of coronavirus.
Easter—will be different this year amid coronavirus.

"I am going to try and pay attention to the spring. I am going to look around at all the flowers, and look up at the hectic trees. I am going to close my eyes and listen."

- Anne Lamott

"Let everything you do be done in love."

1 Corinthians 16:14
"If you look at what Easter is all about, it’s this moment where Jesus does the impossible."

"People can relate to the whole isolation that the disciples felt being stuck in a closed room, and not knowing what the future would hold."
Suddenly, they discovered the news of Jesus' rebirth, which brought new joy and hope.
What will our world look like after the coronavirus crisis?

That is up to us.

Ask:

How are your actions blessing the greater community?

This is best done by asking questions like:

“What does our community need right now?”
“How can we best serve our community while adhering to social-distancing orders?”
“What part of our Easter plan is going to be about blessing other people and sharing God’s love?”
"The great gift of Easter is hope."
- Basil Hume

"Let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth."
1 John 3:18

God loves each of us as if there were only one of us.

Saint Augustine
Jesus said to her,
I am the resurrection
and the life. She who believes in me will live,
even though she dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die.
- John 11:25-26
Let us always be in Solidarity with our Nation & World and all its people!
